RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL
JUN 7 12 20 PM '96

Mr. Brad Litchfield
Federal Elections Commission
999 E. Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Litchfield:

As part of an inquiry by the Hawaii Campaign Spending Commission into the contribution and expenditure records of Friends for Fasi, former mayor of the City and County of Honolulu, we are forwarding information to you that potentially may be a violation of Federal Election Commission regulations.

1. Friends for Fasi reports paying $800 per month rent for their campaign headquarters. Payments are being made to Longevity International Enterprises Corp., located at 100 N. Beretania St., #304, Honolulu, Hawaii 96817. Friends for Fasi have been paying $800 per month rent since at least 1988, the last year that records are available. (Attachment A)
2. Blueprints on file with the City and County Building Department, show that the Friends for Fasi headquarters occupies approximately 2,700 square feet of office space at the Chinatown Cultural Plaza Shopping Center at 100 N. Beretania Street, #203, Honolulu, Hawaii 96817. The rental cost to Friends for Fasi is approximately $.30 per square foot.
3. Longevity International Enterprises Corp., is currently advertising vacancies for commercial space at the Chinatown Cultural Plaza Shopping Center at $1.70 per square foot. This rate is slightly less than the market rate for similar office space for this class of building. This rate is also down considerably from the market rate for similar space in recent years. (Attachment B)
4. Longevity International Enterprises Corp. is listed as a domestic corporation with nine officers and/or directors, most listing the Republic of China as their resident address. A story in the April 9, 1996, Honolulu Star Bulletin describes the owner of the Chinatown Cultural Plaza Shopping Center as China Airlines of Taiwan. (Attachment C & D)

Friends for Fasi may be receiving an in-kind contribution from Longevity International Enterprises Corp., a foreign entity. The in-kind contribution has not been reported.

Please call or write to me if you wish additional information.

Sincerely,

Robert Y. Watada

2. The Corporation shall have succession by its corporate name for a term of perpetual duration and shall have all the powers herein enumerated or implied herefrom, and the powers now or which may hereafter be provided by law for incorporated companies.

ARTICLE VII

No stockholder shall be liable for the debts of the Corporation beyond the amount which may be due or unpaid upon any share or shares of stock of said Corporation owned by him.

ARTICLE VIII

1. As used in this Article VIII, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Agent" means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the Corporation or of another enterprise at the request of the predecessor corporation.

(b) "Expenses" include, without limitation, attorney's fees and any expenses of a completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative.

2. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) if that person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of the person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

13344 204 40 12
3. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor because that person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of the person's duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

4. To the extent that an agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defending any proceeding referred to in subparagraph 2 or 3 of this Article VIII, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified by the Corporation against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

5. Any indemnification under subparagraph 2 or 3 of this Article VIII shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subparagraph 2 or 3 of this Article VIII. The determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the proceeding; or (b) if a quorum is not obtainable, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (c) by the shareholders; or (d) by the court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not the application by the agent, attorney, or other person is opposed by the Corporation.

6. Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that the agent is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

7. The indemnification provided by this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders, or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in a person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such a person.

8. The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation, against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in any such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under this Article VIII.

9. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in that person's capacity, though the person may also be an agent of the employer Corporation as defined in subparagraph 1. Nothing contained in this Article VIII shall limit any right to indemnification to which a trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

ARTICLE IX

Service of legal process may be made upon the Corporation in the manner provided by law.

The undersigned certifies under the penalties of Section 415-136, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended, that the undersigned has read the above statements and that the same are true and correct.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned to these Articles of Incorporation have hereunto caused this instrument to be executed this 17 day of April, 1995.

Chinatown Cultural Plaza tenants upset with management

They're being told to pay back taxes and fees

Star-Bulletin staff

many have agreed to a two-year installment payment plan from the management company.

The Chinatown Cultural Plaza Tenants Association declined to comment on the situation.

One tenant, R.E. Venture Inc., doing business as the Asian Mall, filed suit last month in Circuit Court against Longevity International Enterprises Corp., the current managers.

Longevity took over management of the plaza in December 1994 from Taiwanese managers, who are not named in the lawsuit.

The plaza, bordered by Beretina, Maunakea, and Kukui streets and the River Street Mall, is owned by China Airlines, the Taiwan-government airline.

According to the lawsuit, R.E. Venture was undercharged by $52,180 for property taxes from 1989 to 1994. Because of the undercharging during the five years, the lawsuit says, R.E. Venture was unable to pass along these charges to its subtenants.

Attorney Alfredo Evangelista said in the suit that R.E. Venture also suffered from "gross mismanagement" by the previous manager. R.E. Venture says mismanagement cost the company $1 million in lost rents and profits. Among other complaints, R.E. Venture also alleges that poor maintenance of the sewer system led to flooding of more than 50 percent of the leased space.

Plaza management in its January newsletter, recognized that tenants are upset. "Tenants have responded reasonably and some emotionally (upset) after receiving their notice to pay their share of the undercollection of the real property taxes of the years 1989 through 1994," the newsletter said. "We certainly understand this. Undercollection is due to the management's negligence over the years involved. Rex Fa, our current general manager, would like to assure all the tenants that he will not let this happen again in the future. Regarding prior years, however, it is still the landlord's right to collect the deficit from the tenants according to the signed lease agreement."

Fa was unavailable for comment on the lawsuit.
